reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the amount of $72.57, for the period of February 1, 2023 through and including February 28, 2023 (the “Fee Period”).

1. Pursuant to Local Rule 2016-2, this Application is supported by the certification of John Policano, attached hereto as Exhibit 1. In further support of this Application, RPA respectfully represents as follows:

BACKGROUND

2. On November 30, 2022, each of the Debtors commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors continue to operate their business and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to section 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request has been made for the appointment of a trustee or examiner.

3. On December 16, 2022, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Application for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Employment and Retention of RPA Asset Management Services, LLC as Financial Advisor to the Debtors, Effective as of the Petition Date [Docket No. 64].

4. On January 4, 2023, the Court issued its Order Authorizing the Employment and Retention of RPA Asset Management Services, LLC as Financial Advisor to the Debtors, Effective as of the Petition Date [Docket No. 130] (the “Retention Order”). The Retention Order authorizes RPA to be compensated on an hourly basis and to be reimbursed for actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses.

5. On January 4, 2023, the Court issued its Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Professionals [Docket No. 126].

COMPENSATION PAID AND ITS SOURCE

6. All services for which RPA requests compensation were performed for or on behalf of the Debtors.

7. During the period covered by this Application, RPA has received no payment and no promises for payment from any source for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the matters covered by this Application. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a), RPA has not shared, nor has RPA agreed to share, (i) any compensation it has received or may receive with another party or person other than with the partners and associates of RPA or (ii) any compensation another person or party has received or may receive.

FEE STATEMENTS

8. The fee statement (the “Fee Statement”) for the Fee Period is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. This statement contains daily time logs describing the time spent by each professional for this period. To the best of RPA’s knowledge, this Application complies with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Local Rule 2016-2, all other applicable Bankruptcy Rules, and the guidelines adopted by the Office of the United States Trustee.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES RENDERED

9. The professionals who have rendered professional services in these cases during the Fee Period are as follows: John Policano, Kevin Pleines, Chris Walker and Jaclyn Hill.

10. Services provided by RPA, by and through the above-named persons, to the Debtors during the Fee Period include: (i) preparation and review of the Debtors’ cash flow budget; (ii) preparation of Asset Purchase Agreement and related financial analysis and participation on calls related to the sale of the Company; (iii) interaction with the Debtors’ management team and staff, and providing advice and guidance related to the bankruptcy and requirements thereof; (iv) interaction with the advisors to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, and responding to due diligence inquiries; and (v) preparation of analysis for use in bankruptcy documents.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES

29. RPA incurred expenses totaling $72.57 during the Fee Period. A detailed statement of the expenses paid during the Fee Period is set forth in Exhibit E of the Fee Statement.

30. Section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 sets forth the criteria for the award of compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (a) the time spent on such services; the rates charged for such services;
- (b) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (c) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (d) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

- (e) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

31. In the instant case, RPA respectfully submits that the services for which it seeks compensation in this Application were necessary for and beneficial to the Debtors and were performed economically, effectively, and efficiently. RPA further submits that the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Debtors. Therefore, in accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, it is respectfully submitted that the amount requested by RPA is fair and reasonable given (a) the complexity of these cases, (b) the time expended, (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered, (d) the value of such services, and (e) the costs of comparable services in other cases under this title. Moreover, RPA has reviewed the requirements of Local Rule 2016-2 and believes that this Application complies with that Local Rule. The Debtors have reviewed this Application and do not object to approval of the fees and expenses requested herein.

WHEREFORE, RPA respectfully requests that the Court authorize that the amounts sought herein be approved for payment and for such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
